With a foundation of sound, research-based strategies, the fourth edition of The Essential Middle School now offers many practical applications showing how these strategies can be used in today's classrooms. Readers will gain an understanding of the origins and reasons for middle schools, today's preadolescent learners, effective organizational structures, middle school curriculum planning, classroom teaching, instructional materials and technologies, inclusion and diversity, professional development, and standards and evaluation. Because this edition also pays specific attention to portfolio development and classroom teaching, readers will gain confidence as they prepare for careers in teaching. Book jacket.
